

The light of the North

Softness, serenity, calm, silence... Atelier Tortil’s new carpet collection invites you on a walk through the Finnish countryside, with its landscapes of rock, moss, granite, flowers and lichen... and its peaceful aquatic expanses.

Hand-knotted with a variety of wools, Finland offers a world of soft optical vibrations, like the horizon where sky and water merge.

The different knotting techniques, the range of yarns and the delicate colours selected have produced these abstract and organic patterns that, with impressionist strokes, evoke the beauties of nature.

The particular charm of the Scandinavian seasons pervades this collection through subtle gradations in apparent monochrome, ideal for expressing all the nuances of light, from diaphanous white to stronger tones, like the northern lights.

“In this collection, I wanted to capture all of the impressions I experienced during my various travels in Finland,” explains Jean-Pierre Tortil. “I wanted to convey the magic that results from the alchemy and dialogue between the water, the vegetation, the sky and the earth.”

La lumière du nord

Douceur, sérénité, calme, silence... C’est une promenade à travers la nature finlandaise, ses paysages de roche, de mousse, de granit, de fleurs et de lichen... et ses paisibles étendues aquatiques que la nouvelle collection de tapis d’Atelier Tortil propose.

Noué à la main avec plusieurs types de laine, Finland offre un monde de douces vibrations optiques, telle une ligne d’horizon où ciel et eau se confondent.

Les différentes techniques de nouage, la variété des fils et la délicatesse des couleurs sélectionnées ont donné naissance à ces motifs abstraits et organiques suggérant par touches impressionnistes les beautés de la nature.

Le charme particulier des saisons scandinaves plane sur cette collection grâce aux dégradés subtils déclinés dans une apparente monochromie, idéale pour exprimer toutes les nuances de la lumière, du blanc diaphane aux tonalités plus affirmées, telles des aurores boréales.

« Je souhaitais traduire dans cette collection toutes les impressions vécues lors de mes différents séjours en Finlande, explique Jean-Pierre Tortil, retranscrire cette magie qui naît de l’alchimie et du dialogue entre l’eau, la végétation, le ciel et la terre. »
